Tula, Russia, Nov. 15.—Count Leo Tolstol is suffering from bronchitis, and, owing to a high fever, is in extremely weak condition. A message from his daughter Alexandra, who is nursing him at Astapova, giving this information, adds that the physicians say no immediate danger threatens.

to Astapova Tuesday Morning.

Diagnosis of Physicians. According to the official diagnosis of the physicians, Tolstoi is suffering from a catarrhal inflammation of the lower lobe of the left lung. His heart action is good. The maximum temper ature today was 102, falling at times to 99, which is practically normal; pulse 104, dropping to 90; respiration fair. The physicians add that the ex-pectoration and dispress are sufficient pectoration and diuresis are sufficient and that the patient has enjoyed tranquil sleep, is in good spirits and is resting quietly.

Altogother, this is considered a very satisfactory report, particularly in view of the high temperature which was maintained yesterday, and the symptoms of mental distress, which Tolstol was said to have developed. was Countess Sophia Joins Her Husband, Countess Sophia Tolstol, after the first shock caused by her husband's sudden abandonment of his home and family, displayed astonishing energy this morning and insisted upon being taken to the count. Accompanied by her sons and Count Vladimir Tehertkoff, who formerly was Tolstol's representative in England, she proceeded Astapova in a special train.

of the 7,200 national banks of the Unit-ed States will be revealed about De-cember 1st in the reports which come in answer to the call issued by the comptroller of the currency two days The complete report will reflect the condition of the banks at what is resome $150,000,000 or $170,000,000 before December 31.

Great interest attaches to the condition of the southern banks after the season's operations in cotton and also in the extent to which the banks of the west have reduced their loans.

It seems to be generally known among bank officials, however, that a great deal of money belonging to the interior banks which has been placed on call in Wall street will probably be withdrawn before the end of the year, and the best advices today were that Wall stret borrowers anticipating such withdrawals already have begun arranging for loans from abroad. HAD SKELETON KEYS
